Section 5: Voting

In any proceeding in which voting by members is called for, each member in good standing shall be entitled to cast one vote.

Section 6: Exercise of Privileges

Nonprofit and business memberships may nominate an individual within their organization the benefits covered by its membership and shall have the right to change its nomination upon written notice.

Section 7: Orientation

Annually, orientation on the purposes and activities of this organization shall be conducted for the following groups: new officers and directors and current officers and directors, committee chair, committees, and new members. A detailed outline for each of these groups shall be a part of the organization's procedures manual or orientation handbook.

Section 8: Honorary Membership

Distinction in public affairs shall confer eligibility to honorary membership. Honorary members shall have all the privileges of members except the right to vote and shall be exempt from payment of dues. The board of directors shall confer or revoke honorary membership by a majority vote.

Article III

Meetings

Section 1: Semi-Annual Meeting

Semi-annual meeting of the corporation, in compliance with state law, shall be held in the spring and fall of each year. The time and place shall be fixed by the board of directors and notice thereof mailed to each member at least ten days before said meeting.

Section 2: Additional Meetings (general membership, board, and committee meetings)

General meetings of the association may be called by the chair of the board at any time, or upon petition in writing of five or more members in good standing; notice of special meetings must be made at least five days prior to such meetings; board meetings may be called by the chair of the board or by the majority rule of the board of directors.

Section 3: Quorums

At any duly called general meeting of the association, a number of five members shall constitute a quorum; at a board meeting, a majority of board members shall constitute a quorum. At committee meetings, a majority shall constitute a quorum except when a committee consists of more than nine members. In that case, five shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4: Notices, Agendas, and Minutes

Public notice of all association meetings must be given at least five days in advance, unless otherwise stated. An advance agenda and minutes must be prepared for all meetings. Public notice is defined as publication in the Jay Community News or equivalent means as designated by the board of directors on an annual basis.

Article IV

Board of Directors

Section 1: Composition of the Board

The board of directors shall be composed of five members, President, Secretary, Treasurer and Directors. Each position will be elected by a quorum of members to serve a one-year term or until their successors are elected and have qualified. The government and policy-making responsibilities of the association shall be vested in the board of directors, which shall control its property, be responsible for its finances, and direct its affairs.

Section 2: Vacancies

A member of the board of directors who shall be absent from three consecutive regular meetings of the board of directors shall automatically be dropped from membership on the board unless confined by illness or other absence approved by a majority vote of those voting at any meeting thereof. Vacancies on the board, or among the officers, shall be filled by the board by a majority vote.

Section 3: Policy

The board of directors is responsible for establishing procedure and formulating policy for the organization. It is also responsible for adopting all policies of the organization. These policies shall be maintained in a policy manual to be reviewed annually and revised as necessary.

Section 4: Appointment and Authority

The chair of the board, by and with the approval of the board of directors, shall appoint all committees and committee chairs.
